

FROM ABD TO PhD

Spring 2017 WORKSHOP SERIES—Updated

Purpose: Provide writing support for ABD (all but dissertated) students; discuss shared concerns about the dissertation process; and introduce strategies to facilitate writing. All participants should come prepared to write and work collaboratively with students from across diverse disciplines. Coffee, tea, water, and light snacks will be provided, as will pens and ruled notepads.

Thursday, February 2nd (2:30pm-4:30pm), EDUC 102N

Topic: Integrating Sources in Your Lit Review

Register at the following link: <http://tinyurl.com/integrating-sources2>

Description: In this graduate writing workshop for ABD students, we will explore ways to organize and connect secondary sources effectively in your dissertation literature review.

Thursday, March 2nd (2:30pm-4:30pm), Nugent 102

Topic: Revising Grammar and Style

Register at the following link: <http://tinyurl.com/grammar-style>

Description: In this graduate writing workshop for ABD students, we will explore ways to identify and fix common grammatical and/or stylistic error patterns. Please bring a short sample of your writing (either hardcopy or on a laptop) with you to this workshop.

Thursday, March 30th (2:30pm-4:30pm), SEL 311

Topic: Writing in Community

Register at the following link: <http://tinyurl.com/writing-community>

Description: In this graduate writing workshop for ABD students, we will blend writing/revising with facilitated non-evaluative peer feedback activities in order to provide you with a focused, safe space to work on your dissertation. You will have opportunities to ask questions and receive and offer feedback that is generative rather than prescriptive. Please bring a short sample of your writing (either hardcopy or on a laptop) with you to this workshop.

Sponsored by

Graduate Professional Student Council
Graduate Center

Facilitated by

Writing Skills Improvement Program
Think Tank Writing Specialist