

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

Writing Skills Improvement Program

WSIP Custom Workshop Topics

WSIP workshops are activity-based lessons designed to teach writing skills through discussion and application. We can tailor our existing topics, or work with you to develop a new topic to meet the needs of your audience. Our writing specialists are available to facilitate workshops for a wide range of audiences, including high school students, college students (undergraduate and graduate), high school teachers, college instructors, business leaders, and more.

Abstracts	Analysis and Summary
Annotated Bibliography	Article and Book Reviews
Audience Awareness	Blog Entries
Brainstorming	Citation Styles
CV and Resume	Discussion Posts
Diversity Statements	Grammar and Style
Generating Research Questions and Key Terms	Grant Writing
Integrating Sources	Job Applications
Literature Review	Non-Evaluative Feedback
Overview of Academic Writing	Personal Statements
Persuasive Writing	Plagiarism
Position Papers	Preparing for Publication
Preparing for Comprehensive Exams	Preparing for Written Exams
Presentations	Proofreading
Punctuation	Research Papers
Research Proposals	Revision Strategies
Research Statements	Structure and Organization
Synthesis	Vocabulary
Thesis and Dissertation Writing	Wordiness
Writing Across the Curriculum	Writing to Learn

Fees: $120 per delivered workshop hour. Additional fees may be required for content development and to cover the costs of materials and travel.

Submit workshop requests online at <https://wsip.arizona.edu/workshop-request-form>

If you have any questions, please contact us at

Writing Skills Improvement Program

writingskills@email.arizona.edu

wsip.arizona.edu

ph. (520) 621-5849